What a busy time we are having at Hill Top Club. We are busy every weekend throughout March, with something for everybody!!! Why go anywhere else??

You may have noticed some changes to the club, new lighting, decorating and outside resurfacing. We have also had a new website created by one of our members, Mark Basford. Mark has done an excellent job and we are very appreciative of the hard work and effort he has put into creating a very eye pleasing website. Check it out at www.hilltopclub.co.uk. Many thanks to Mark for all his hard work!

On Friday the 15th of March, we are having a Comic Relief Disco and entertainment to raise money for Red Nose Day! Please see further details in this newsletter. Any volunteers for head shaving (grades 1—5) and wax off, please contact Jenny or John Marsden. Also, if anyone has an Olympic Triathlon 50p which they could donate to for Red Nose Day, we would be grateful. A member has put a together almost a full set of Olympic 50 pence pieces which they have donated to the raffle, unfortunately it is just missing the triathlon 50p, again please contact Jenny or John Marsden.

Thanks to Ian Bowen for providing a review of our Saturday night entertainment up to now. If you fancy having a go at writing an article for the newsletter please contact me at :- hilltopssc1@btconnect.com

SATURDAY NIGHT REVIEWS

BY IAN BOWEN.

Is it just me, or does the regular Saturday Niteers, get better and better? During the last 12 months, I can't remember seeing one bad group! Without doubt, some were better than others, but that is an individual personal opinion.

Some years ago, I moved out of the Dronfield area and I now live in Sheffield 13. Within a short distance of home, there are no less than 8 pubs and clubs, offering regular entertainment, of some form or other. Despite the distance involved, travelling to Dronfield, my wife and I always look forward to our visits to the Hill Top Club, where we are assured of a good evenings entertainment.

Looking back at the most recent events, all of which stir the happy memory cells. Not all were Saturday Niteers, but none the less, are worthy of mention. January 12th, Rule The World, Take That Tribute band. For some reason, women were screaming at this group. Nuff said. January 19th, Twice Around. I found this group great fun. Some very nostalgic numbers were played. January 26th, Tytania, a very professional group, first class musicians. We even bought one of their CD's! February 9th, an early Valentines dinner, some lucky ladies probably went out on the 14th as well, Again, in my opinion, a first class meal with entertainment by The Victorians. Now these two guys were fantastic fun, very different to the usual entertainment. I understand that they have made ,or, are about to make, an appearance on Britain's Got Talent, but, under the name of Bosom Buddies, keep an eye out for them on the telly! February 16th, Heartbeats. All I have heard about this group has been good. Apparently and unusually so, members were up dancing from the word go. I am sorry to say that we missed this event. February 23rd, Martin Burton and The Soul men. If I am honest, I wasn't excited about seeing this act. It just shows how wrong I could have been. Absolutely fantastic! Brilliant harmony, and singing all the songs I remember and love the best.

At a time when many pubs and clubs are closing down, or struggling to make ends meet. The Hill Top Club, as it's name suggests, still remains at the top. Quite apart from the obvious, clean, comfortable, and reasonably priced drinks, the quality and variety of entertainment on offer, is probably second to none. If you are a regular Saturday Niter, you will know what I mean, and if you aren't, you ought to be. You have a good club, run by a good hardworking committee, and an excellent membership. But Saturday Niteers could always do with more attending. People don't know what they are missing, Spread the word.

A very happy member, Ian Bowen

Martin Fisher was the winner of the Sheffield Wednesday Tickets which were raffled last Saturday, £185 was raised and this money will go to providing excellent bands. Hope Martin enjoys his time being wined and dined at Hillsborough!

We are collecting Sainsbury's Active kids vouchers again on behalf of Hill Top Scouts. The collection box is on the bar. The vouchers have provided the group with a variety of items including tents. Please donate your vouchers to this very worthy cause! Thanks!

The 200 Club winner of £100 was Don Nicol and the snowball winner of £30 was John Marsden.
